

Ogden Players On Edge For Big Thanksgiving Game

Captain Bill Glasmann Putting His Men Through Fast Paces in Preparation for Wyoming Contest; Cowboys Will Have Rattling Good Lineup in Harness; Kickoff Set for 2:30 p. m.

With but two days remaining before the big contest with the University of Wyoming Cowboys, the Ogden Athletic association's speedy machine is going through fast workouts in the hopes of sending the Cowboys home on the short end of the score. The contest will be played at Lorin Farr park Thursday afternoon, the kickoff being slated for 2:30 o'clock sharp.

During the present season both teams have made good records. Wyoming has won four games, lost two and tied one. On the other hand the Ogden A. A. has won five and lost two.

While a just comparison of the two teams cannot be made, Coach Tommy Fitzpatrick of the University of Utah states that the Ogden men have an even break with the seasoned veterans of the University of Wyoming.

In the kicking department the locals will stack up with any combination in the entire country. They have four men of exceptional merit in Fitzpatrick, Douglas, Mohr and Glasmann. Either of the men can boot the ball better than 55 yards consistently. Glasmann is also a star at the drop kicking art.

Over the telephone from Salt Lake today Coach Corbett stated that his men were working out daily at the University of Utah and that they were all in first class condition and prime for a wonderful game. He will arrive in Ogden with his gridiron shortly after the noon hour tomorrow.

Jayman, Simpson and Pitts are the three men in the Cowboy backfield who are stars of the first order. They will rank with any back field stars in the conference and are expected to show a world of class here in the coming contest. Layman is a wonderful drop kicker and may be called on to boot the oval between the cross bars.

The Ogden team will be well fortified with players. Captain Bill Glasmann will have twenty men in suits for the coming contest. Officials of the local club were not ready to announce their lineup for the starting of the game but it was stated that every man would get a chance to show his wares. The following men will be out in suits: Captain B. Glasmann, Dee, Erwin, Reberg, E. Wilkenson, D. Wilkenson, A. Glasmann, Twitchell, Kilpatrick, Mohr, Crookston, Peterson, Reed, O'Keefe, Bagley, Douglas, Berry, Watson, Cross and Gregory.

B. C. Glasmann, Dee, A. Glasmann, Reberg, E. Wilkenson, Crookston and Erwin will be used in the backfield against the fast Wyomingites. These men are all speedy and are in first class condition for the big game.

Wild Ashton of Salt Lake will referee the contest. Reddish will umpire and Malcolm Watson will act as head linesman. These three men are rated as the best officials in the state. Their decisions have been just in all of the games in which they have officiated during the season.

The contest will start at 2:30 o'clock sharp and it is expected that the largest crowd in the history of Ogden will be on hand to greet the teams in their final game of the year.

It was apparent that Young was only feeling out his man and getting a line on the force of the kick contained in his opponent's mitt.

After Young had absorbed this knowledge and found there was but little to fear from the coast lad's pokes, he tore in and smothered his man with heavy blows. He used his right most effectively, and in the fifth and sixth frames, staggered Papke and had him almost at his mercy.

At times the blows rattled Papke's head and that he dropped his hands at his side and Young reeled his head back and forth with rights and lefts. The coast boy showed unusual ability to absorb punishment and this alone saved him from taking the count.

When the final going sounded, Young had a big lead and when the referee called on the coast boy's side, the crowd broke into thunderous cheers.

Red Newey of Ogden fared not quite as well as did his city brother, gaining only a draw decision over Eddie Boone of Buffalo, who substituted for Jack Castello. The fans did not rate the eastern boy very highly in the opening round, nor in the second, when Newey floored him with a heavy right to the head, the bell possibly saving Boone at the close of this count.

He came back strong, however, in the third and fought the Ogden boy to a standstill, sending in lefts to the face that staggered Newey every time. While Newey recovered several, they were ineffective.

The last round found the Buffalo boy going strong, punishing Newey with lefts and rights and the one which had the latter a mighty worried boy.

George Solis and Frankie Harris fought a four-round slashing draw decision. George tried to finish the fight in the first two rounds, when he punished the Ogden boy to the staggering point. However, he worked too hard, as the Ogden boy came back in the last two rounds and fought the local boy off his feet. A draw decision gives both boys the desired amount of credit.

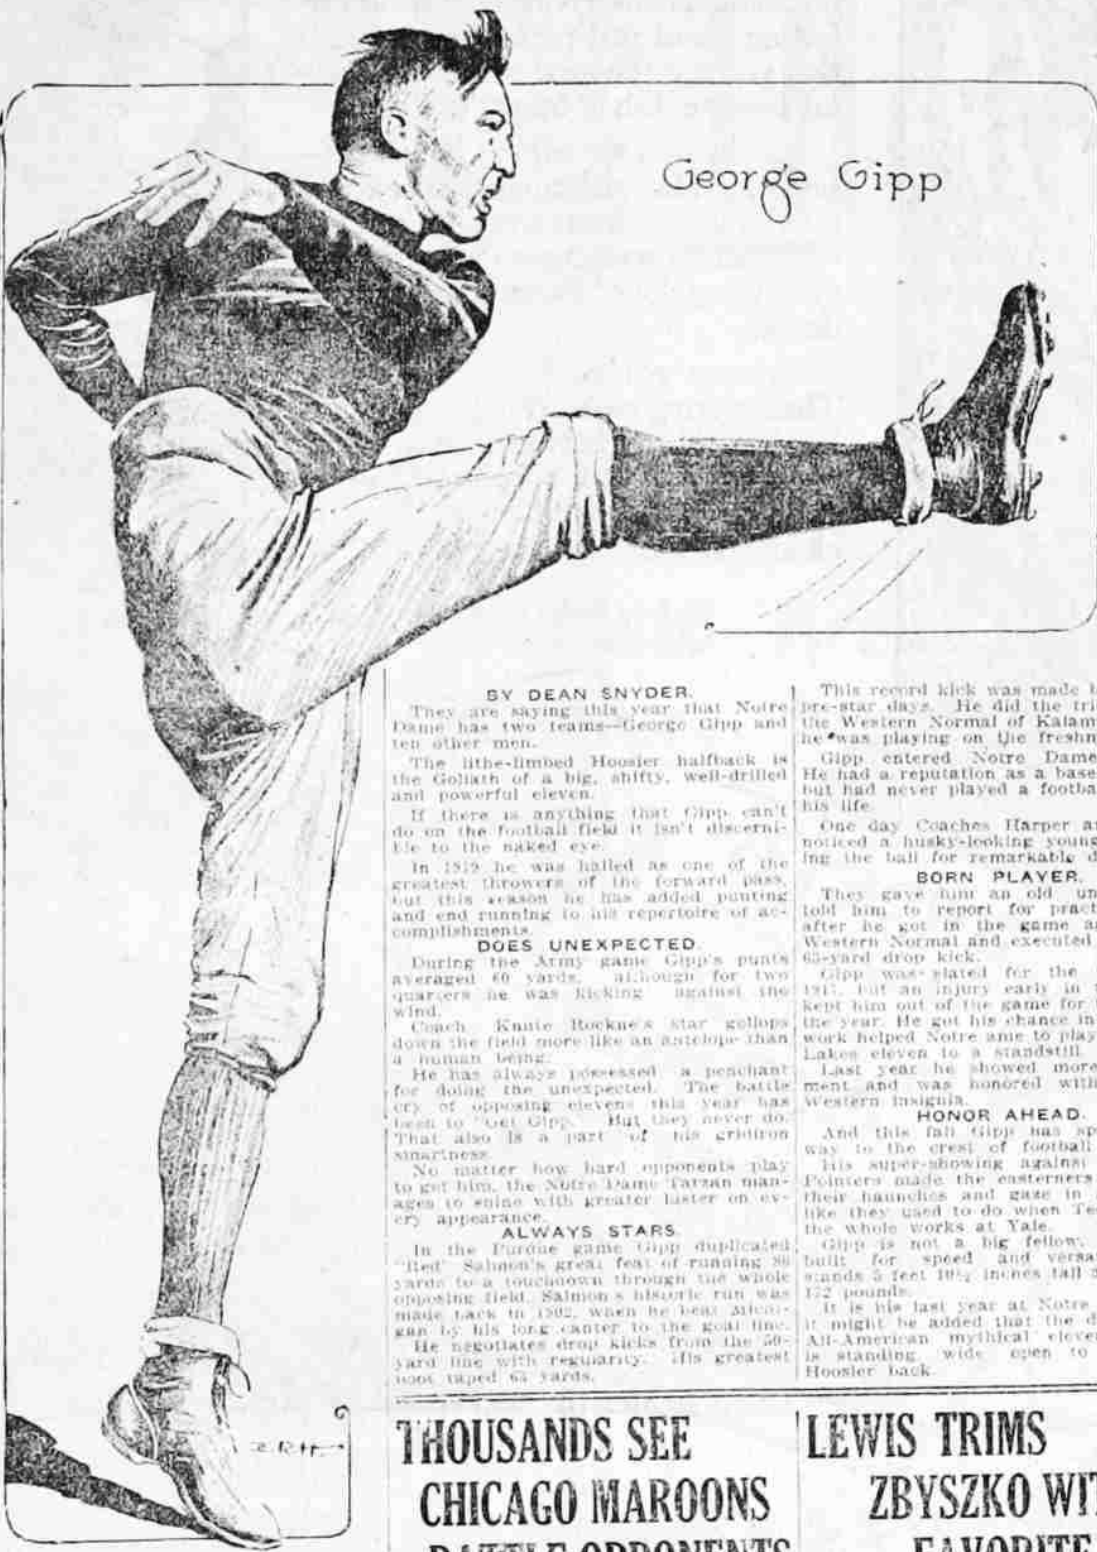

Jimmie Munson won over Connie Mack in their scheduled four-round bout when the latter's seconds threw in the towel at the close of the third round. Munson worked both rights and lefts to the face during the opening rounds with the result that Connie had a mighty sore face and with hard rights and straight lefts still coming in, made the going too fast for Mack.

Jimmy Williams drew a draw decision in his four-round go with Walter Heart and with the decision also drew a neat little lacing. For the first two rounds, Williams had it mostly his own way, counting with overhand rights to Heart's head that made the latter a weak boy. Heart, however, came back at the opening of the third round, while in the last round he gave Williams enough hard blows to earn a draw decision. It was one of the fastest bouts of the evening.

Bert Nelson was too much for Mack Fadden in their scheduled four-round go, and after he had hit his man with all that was necessary, the referee stopped the bout.

HERE'S THE GOLIATH OF NOTRE DAME

BY DEAN ENYDER.

They are saying this year that Notre Dame has two teams—George Gipp and ten other men.

The little-limbed Hoosier halfback is the Goliath of a big, shifty, well-drilled and powerful eleven.

If there is anything that Gipp can't do on the football field it isn't discernible to the naked eye.

In 1919 he was hailed as one of the greatest throwers of the forward pass, but this season he has added punting and end running to his repertoire of accomplishments.

DOES UNEXPECTED.
During the Army game Gipp's punts averaged 40 yards, although for two quarters he was kicking against the wind.

Coach Knute Rockne's star girds down the field more like an antique than a human being.

He has always possessed a penchant for doing the unexpected. The battle cry of opposing eleven this year has been to "beat Gipp."

That also is a part of his brilliant smartness. No matter how hard opponents play to get him, the Notre Dame star manages to smile with greater ease on every appearance.

ALWAYS STARS.
In the Purdue game Gipp duplicated "Red" Salmon's great feat of running 50 yards to a touchdown through the wide opposing field. Salmon's historic run was made back in 1912, when he beat Albion.

He negotiates drop kicks from the 50-yard line with regularity. His greatest feat was to drop a kick from the 50-yard line.

THOUSANDS SEE CHICAGO MAROONS BATTLE OPPONENTS

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—In attendance and gate receipts the University of Chicago football team, of the season, just closed, drew more than any other team that ever played at Stagg field.

In seven games, six of them at Stagg field, 165,000 saw the maroons battle with their opponents. For each of the seven games, the attendance did not drop below 25,000 and had the field been able to accommodate more than 30,000, it is believed by college authorities that the attendance would have been nearly doubled.

No official announcement has been made by Director Stagg but it is believed the receipts were over a quarter of a million, and probably as high as $300,000. This amount was split between Chicago and the visiting teams.

Oregon Gridders Off for Big Game

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 23.—Twenty members of the University of Oregon football team are en route today to Pasadena, Cal., for a Thanksgiving day game with the University of Southern California. It is the team's second Pasadena trip. In Pasadena, the Oregon boys will meet the team that last year, while south for the Harvard game.

"Bill" Steers, star player, who went to the Pacific to visit his father, who was injured last week in an automobile accident, is not expected to go south for the game.

AIR RACE.
MINEOLA, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Attracted by the promise of new world's flying records, airplane enthusiasts gathered at Mitchell field here today for the first of the trial events for the Pulitzer trophy race, Thanksgiving day. Planes rated as the speediest in the world were entered in the preliminaries.

Army air service pilots confidentially predicted that their pet machine, the six hundred horsepower plane which was "top entry" of the United States in the James Gordon Bennett races at Etampes, France, would eclipse the record of 192 miles attained in France. Lieutenant C. C. Mosely was selected as pilot.

The course for the trial flights here is one mile and one kilometer.

LEWIS TRIMS ZBYSZKO WITH FAVORITE HOLD

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Ed Strangler Lewis, of Lexington, Ky., threw Vladimir Zbyszko of Poland, in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match tonight with a flying headlock in one hour twenty-five minutes and forty-five seconds.

Lewis thereby earned the right to meet Joe Stetcher of New York, world's champion, who tonight threw Leon O'Donnell, of France, in eleven minutes forty seconds, with a body scissors and arm hold.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Arnos Lallone, of Finland, pinned Dan McDonald of Nova Scotia to the mat with a body hold in ten minutes and twenty-two seconds.

The Lewis-Zbyszko match was rough, both men trying often for toe holds. In the last five minutes, Lewis obtained three headlocks from two of which his opponent escaped. Lewis was in jeopardy when the Pole got a toe hold and a body hold, but squirmed out and gained his feet. With the final headlock he threw Zbyszko to the floor, retaining the hold, forced the dazed Pole's shoulders to the mat.

O'Donnell, who appeared in this country for the first time, gave a clever exhibition of defensive work until he succumbed to Stetcher's favorite body scissors hold.

PENN STATE CLOSES SEASON THANKSGIVING

PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.—Final drills in a new set of signals are being given to the University of Pittsburgh football team for the game against Penn State Thanksgiving day.

All available space for the game has been sold and about 10,000 mail requests for tickets have been returned. Bob Maxwell, of Swarthmore, will be the referee.

URGE CLEANUP IN BASEBALL

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—William H. McCarty, president of the Pacific Coast baseball league, and Charles H. Strub, owner of the San Francisco club, who are on a short tour in the east, declared here today that "the only way to clean up baseball is to go after the gamblers." They urged the barring of all known professional gamblers from the parks of organized baseball.

A mosque and a Mussulman's university, originally planned for Algeria, are to be built in Paris.

STIEFEL OUT OF BIG GAME

Crimson Halfback Will Not Be Seen in Action in Annual Contest

Mose Stiefel, star halfback of the University of Utah grid machine, will not be seen in action in the Turkey game at Salt Lake against the Utah Aggies, according to an announcement made today by Coach Tommy Fitzpatrick. Stiefel was injured last October in the first game of the season staged at Salt Lake and while he has been in two contests since that time, his injured knee continues to cause trouble.

Stiefel is one of the mainsprings in the Crimson backfield and his absence is sure to hamper the chances of the U. of U.

With Stiefel out of the fray Utah will start the contest with Smith, Ure, Oswald and Watkins in the backfield. These have displayed wonderful ability this season and are expected to carry the Crimson over the Aggie goal line.

Smith in particular has been going great guns of late and is rated as one of the best men in the Rockies. He is fast, shifty and heady.

The Aggies, thirty strong, will depart from Logan for the scene of battle tomorrow afternoon. They will depend on Lew Balck and Per Hansen to carry the bulk of attack. These two men are speed merchants of the first order and are looked upon to turn the tide in favor of the Aggies.

BORTON MAY BE CALLED BEFORE JURY NEXT WEEK

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 23.—The bank account of W. Baker ("Babe") Borton, former Vernon first baseman, received special attention today from the Los Angeles county grand jury, which resumed investigation of the alleged crookedness in Pacific Coast league baseball games in the 1919 season.

It was intimated the desire of the jurors to learn more about a diamond ring Borton was said to have had in his possession during a Vernon-Seaside series in Seattle may result in his being called again to testify.

The inquiry will be resumed Friday.

CADDOCK MATCHED.
OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 23.—Earl Caddock, of Anita, Iowa, and Charley Peters of Papillion, Neb., have been matched for a finish match at the municipal auditorium here on the night of December 6. Caddock is to receive $2,000 and a percentage of the gate receipts. This will be the first contest between these two men.

TRADE RUMORED IN BASEBALL CIRCLES

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—Although officials of the Cincinnati baseball club say there is "nothing definite" rumors persist of a big trade between the local club and the Chicago Nationals. It is that Groh, Neale, Kopf, and Reuther will go to Chicago in exchange for Alexander, Hollocher and other Cubs not as yet mentioned.

GOING HOME TO turkey and trimmin's

THANKSGIVING DAY last year. AND PALATES quiver.

I ATE my chow. OH BOY, real turkey.

ALONE in the big town. AND THEN afterwards.

AND THE TURKEY was all. ABLE TO breathe.

NEATLY VARNISHED and had. BUT NOT to bend.

NICE LITTLE paper pants. I'LL REACH for a smoke.

ON BOTH its legs. THAT'S THE real turkey, too.

AND TASTED strongly. COSTLY AROMATIC Turkish.

LIKE NOTHING at all. BLENDED WITH the best.

BUT THIS year. OF MELLOW Domestic leaf.

MAN ALIVE, I'm going home. AND ONCE again—oh boy.

AND THERE will be. CAN'T YOU just hear me.

A COUNTRY turkey. INFORMING THE world.

DONE to a turn. "THEY SATISFY."

BROWN AND savory. I'VE real Turkish tobacco that goes into Chesterfields—really grown in Turkey and brought on the ground by our own buyers. To blend it with best Domestic, in the exclusive Chesterfield way—leaves that to us "They Satisfy." We'll leave that to you.

YOUNG TRIMS YOUNG PAPKE

Local Mit Slinger Is Awarded Decision in Six-round Boxing Contest

At Young, Ogden's kingpin lightweight, won a well-earned decision over Young Papke of Sacramento, one of the hardest-hitting lightweights of the Pacific coast, last night in the star six-round event of the Manhattan club show in Salt Lake. Young fought a heady battle, and after he had felt out his man and determined just what the coast lad could offer, he pounded his opponent to all parts of the ring and only the ability of Papke to take punishment saved him from a knockout.

With a hard right, which he drove in with sizzling speed, Young floored the California boy in the second round. Papke climbed to his feet and shook his head and stalled out the remainder of the period. In the first frame, Papke shaded the Ogden lightweight.

George Solis and Frankie Harris fought a four-round slashing draw decision. George tried to finish the fight in the first two rounds, when he punished the Ogden boy to the staggering point. However, he worked too hard, as the Ogden boy came back in the last two rounds and fought the local boy off his feet. A draw decision gives both boys the desired amount of credit.

Jimmie Munson won over Connie Mack in their scheduled four-round bout when the latter's seconds threw in the towel at the close of the third round. Munson worked both rights and lefts to the face during the opening rounds with the result that Connie had a mighty sore face and with hard rights and straight lefts still coming in, made the going too fast for Mack.

Jimmy Williams drew a draw decision in his four-round go with Walter Heart and with the decision also drew a neat little lacing. For the first two rounds, Williams had it mostly his own way, counting with overhand rights to Heart's head that made the latter a weak boy. Heart, however, came back at the opening of the third round, while in the last round he gave Williams enough hard blows to earn a draw decision. It was one of the fastest bouts of the evening.

Bert Nelson was too much for Mack Fadden in their scheduled four-round go, and after he had hit his man with all that was necessary, the referee stopped the bout.

West Ketchell won via the knockout route in his scheduled four-round go with Jack Raleigh, who substituted for Jack Radio. Ketchell started in at the bell, and never quit until his man was out.
